

Presentations for Healthcare Professionals

Please call 303.449.7740 to schedule a presentation tailored to meet your specific needs

How Will I Know?— Recognizing the dying process

Does Dying Have to Hurt?— Pain and symptom management

Physician-to-Physician— Dialogues in end-of-life care

What do They Know? How Can We Help?— Talking to dying patients and their families

Balancing Personal and Professional Caring— Understanding grief in a healthcare facility

Moral Distress— The clash of practice and principle

Compassion Fatigue— Caring as burden

It's Too Much to Bear— The whys and hows of palliative sedation

Sticks and Stones May Break My Bones, But So Can CPR— A guide to medical technologies

Talking with Physicians About End-of-Life Care— Working as a team for the wellbeing of our patients

Additional Topics:

Working with HospiceCare

Guidance in determining prognosis

Talking to dying patients and families (for staff)

Telling your patient (for physicians)

Morphine myths

Palliative care physician program

Cardiac program

End-of-life review for new RNs

Understanding artificial nutrition and hydration

Talking to a patient interested in stopping eating and drinking volitionally

Palliative sedation

About dying and death (CNA education)

Additional Support

Consultations on handling end-of-life situations

Staff support during times of multiple or difficult loss

Grief support groups for staff, residents, and families

Remembrance services for staff, residents, and families

Rituals for multiple losses and significant events

